Response:

Description:

Abhilashi University has adopted a well framed appraisal system to give incremental benefits to its teaching and non-teaching staff in a very effective manner. #### 6.4.4 Institution conducts internal and external financial audits regularly

Response:

Response:

Abhilashi University has established a mechanism for conducting internal and external audits on financial transactions on a yearly basis to ensure financial compliance. The University has a system in place for both internal and external auditing. As part of the Abhilashi Educational Society, we have our own internal audit mechanism, where internal audit is an ongoing continuous process in addition to the external auditors, to verify and certify the University's entire Income and Expenditure as well as Capital Expenditure each year.

Qualified Internal members from external resources have been permanently appointed, and a team of staff reporting to them checks and verifies all vouchers for transactions carried out in each fiscal year. Similarly, an external audit is carried out in great detail on a yearly basis. Internal and statutory audits of the institutional accounts are performed on a regular basis under the supervision of the University's Finance Officer. There have been no major findings or objections raised thus far.

Minor errors of omissions and commissions are corrected / rectified as soon as they are identified by the audit team, and precautionary measures are taken to prevent such errors from recurring in the future. On a regular basis, the institute adheres to an internal and external financial audit system.

The following mechanisms are used to monitor the effective and efficient use of financial resources:

- Prior to the start of each fiscal year, the Finance Officer submits to management a budget allocation proposal that incorporates the recommendations of all department heads.
- The University budget includes both recurring and non-recurring expenses such as salaries, electricity, internet charges, maintenance costs, stationery, other consumable charges, and so on. The accounts department will monitor the expenses in accordance with the budget set by management.
- The costs of depreciation for various items purchased in previous years are also computed.

Process of the internal audit:

An internal financial committee audits all vouchers on an annual basis. By verifying the bills and vouchers, the expenses incurred under various headings are thoroughly scrutinised. If a discrepancy is discovered, it is brought to the principal's attention. The same procedure has been used for the past five years.

Process of the external audit:

The University's accounts are audited on a regular basis by chartered accountants in accordance with government regulations. Following the audit, the auditor verifies that all payments have been properly authorised, and the report is sent to management for review. Any questions that arise during the auditing process will be answered as soon as possible, along with any supporting documentation, and within the time limits specified.

The institution had received no major audit objections in the previous years. All of these mechanisms demonstrate the institution's financial transparency and adherence to financial discipline in order to avoid the misappropriation of funds or property at all levels. The management and chartered accountant authorities sign the audited statement.

Best Practice 1: Strong Mentoring system & Guidance to advanced and slow learners

All newly admitted students are given orientation sessions by the university's several faculties to familiarise them with the programme structure, examination scheme, and numerous courses in the programme, as well as employment options in various professions.

To monitor their learning levels, the Institution has implemented a policy to identify advanced and slow learners by reviewing their MH-CET/GPAT score, Aptitude Test evaluation, and Performances in first Credit/first Sessional examinations.

The Class Incharge and Mentors examine the above data and classify pupils as advanced or slow learners, respectively, and offer them with appropriate instruction. Remedial Classes, Guest Lectures, Class Tests, and Mentor Counseling are some of the special activities created and conducted by the college for slow learners. At the same time, the institution organises and implements specific programmes aimed at enhancing advanced learners' creativity, leadership, and intellect, such as group activities, conferences/seminars, poster preparations, participatory learning, and peer teaching.

This activity helped to meet the diverse needs of slow learners and advanced learners by improving the slow learner's ability to comprehend difficult topics, recall answers to questions, gain clarity in practical knowledge of experiments, cope with English language difficulties, build confidence, and contribute to the students' overall development. Similarly, this exercise assisted advanced learners in expanding their leisure realm while also instilling research and leadership skills.

Best Practice 2: Structured feedback for Design and Review of syllabus

A proper feedback mechanism regarding curriculum is adopted in the University by various stakeholders including students, teachers, alumni, parents and employers. IQAC of the University is keen to strongly amend and improve the syllabi to meet the current need of Academia and Industry. To achieve this the following parameters are considered in the feedback mechanism:

1. Opinion on the content of the syllabus as a whole.

2. Incorporation of new content into the existing curriculum.
3. Subsections of the present syllabus are removed.
4. Inclusion of a new course in the curriculum.
5. The amount of time required to complete the syllabus.

The feedback received is analysed and actions are taken against suggestions/feedbacks received from different stakeholders. The curriculum is enhanced to make the students more competent and efficient in their respective fields.

Criterion 7 - Institutional Values and Best Practices

7.1 Institutional Values and Social Responsibilities

7.1.1 Measures initiated by the Institution for the promotion of gender equity during the last five years.

Response:

The University promotes equality amongst students without any prejudice to their socio-economic background or gender. The general policy is geared towards elimination of any discrimination against or harassment of any girl student. The University has taken various initiatives, actions for ensuring a safe and secure environment for all the females on the campus.

For ensuring physical security and elimination of harassment, the University has deployed over 112 CCTV cameras at all sensitive and vantage points which are monitored by a team of security personnel who are well-oriented in addressing gender issues. In girl's hostels, warden and special security officials are deployed for ensuring security and safety of female students. Necessary measures have also been taken to keep a close vigil on the movement of all types of persons with suspicious behavior and unauthorized access in the campus.

In pursuance of the UGC guidelines, the University has constituted an Internal Complaint Committee (ICC). The Committee, apart from handling the specific cases of complaints received from female students/employees regarding sexual harassment, has also initiated a number of measures for its prevention and strengthening the safety and security of women on the campus. It has helped spread awareness on gender related issues through planning of workshops, skits, street plays, etc. It also seeks to provide guidance to the faculty and staff in integrating/ mainstreaming gender in all activities of the University in the form of focused group discussions, debates, poster making competitions, etc.

The University students have been sensitized on the issues relating to gender and sexual harassment through street play. The 'International Girl Child Day' was celebrated in October, 2020 wherein a 'Nukad Natak' on gender equity was organized to help recognize the problems faced due to gender discrimination. To emphasize that gender equality is not only a fundamental human right, but a necessary foundation for a peaceful, prosperous and sustainable world, a series of Webinars have been conducted. Similarly, webinars have been organized on health promotion and nutrition of female child and women.

For empowering women, an awareness session on 'Digital Literacy and Online Safety' of women was organized wherein emerging threats to the safety of women on digital platforms, the cybercrimes committed against women, and the recourse available to them to prevent and redress such crimes were discussed.

Events such as Slogan Competition on gender awareness, an Essay Completion and a Poster Completion on health promotion and nutrition are periodically organized. The ICC has also taken initiative to organize a seminar on Psychological Counseling of female students, in addition to the counseling offered by the Psychological Counseling Cell of the University. The University has created a quality child day care facility for the children of faculty members, staff and senior students.

- Solid waste management
- Liquid waste management
- Biomedical waste management
- E-waste management
- Waste recycling system
- Hazardous chemicals and radioactive waste management

Response:

The University has laid down detailed procedure for safe storage and disposal of wastes generated on the campus in a clean, safe and economical manner to ensure scientific management. The “Waste Management Policy” of the University ensures compliance of the obligations laid down in the Waste Management Rules and guidelines.

SOLID WASTE MANAGEMENT

The solid wastes are primarily segregated in three parts: Biodegradable waste (wet waste); Non-biodegradable waste (dry waste) and Hazardous waste. While the wet wastes are converted as compost/vermi-compost, the dry wastes are further segregated; those which are sold as recyclable and those which are non-recyclable sent for sanitary land fill, along with the Hazardous wastes. The University has 30 plus litter-bins of varying capacity across the campus for segregation of waste at source itself, with two locations earmarked as dumping yards. The food and wet waste collected from the hostel messes are processed/ decomposed. There is a well laid down protocol for transportation/disposal of solid waste which cannot be gainfully made use of on the University campus.

LIQUID WASTE MANAGEMENT

The University has installed a Sewage Treatment Plant (STP) to treat effluents and untreated water of domestic sewage from hostels, academic blocks, hospital etc. by extended aeration activated sludge process, using fine bubble diffused aeration system. It has entered into contract with service providers for running STP and the Effluent Treatment Plant (ETP). Recycled water is used for horticulture and flushing system. Sludge from STP is being used as manure within the campus.

BIOMEDICAL WASTE MANAGEMENT

The University strictly complies with the provisions of Biomedical Waste Management (Amendment) Rules, 2018 and the state government guidelines. At Hospital, collection of biomedical waste in bins of different colours is practiced as per the specified norms. The waste is picked up from collection centers for disposal.

E-WASTE MANAGEMENT

E-waste is generated from different Faculties/Schools/Departments, including computer laboratories and collected e-waste from diverse sources is segregated into various categories such as components, modules, metals, glass and plastics, depending on the salability on its disposal through empanelled vendors, following the State Pollution Control Board guidelines.

HAZARDOUS CHEMICALS AND RADIO-ACTIVE WASTE MANAGEMENT

Hazardous waste chemical materials such as oil of DG sets, paints, etc. are stored in containers, preventing their mixing with municipal solid waste. Due care in handling of corrosive substances is taken to avoid toxic products. The University has designated an isolated place for hazardous waste storage where incompatible wastes are segregated to prevent reaction. The disposal is carried out strictly in accordance with the laid-down norms.

7.2 Best Practices

7.2.1 Describe two best practices successfully implemented by the Institution as per NAAC format provided in the Manual.

Response:

1. Title of the Practice

Mentoring Programme

2.Objectives of the Practice

To provide students with:

- career and non-academic counselling.
- information on preparatory courses such as skill courses, bridge courses, etc. for their academic prosperity.
- focus and motivation to achieve learning goals and thereby improve their academic performance.
- guidance, encouragement and advise about their upcoming student life, health, mental, and emotional well-being and listen to their issues with patience.
- support to resolve their concerns with appropriate resources, support, and referral available.
- opportunities to generate curiosity and interest in academics and other institutional activities.
- a personal relationship between the mentor, mentee and the parents for making their life meaningful.

3.The Context

University is committed to provide a reliable and comprehensive support system to motivate students to achieve academic and non-academic fields and help them mould themselves for the future. The creation of a personal relationship between the mentor and the mentee ensures the students adapt to the dynamic learning environment and lead their ways into a highly successful career-close relationship. It develops continuous interaction between the mentor, mentee and the parents leading to a better understanding of the students' aspiration, strength, and weaknesses.

We are providing counselling to the students through personal attention and regular dialogues during their stay on campus, on the telephone, and by paying personal attention by the Mentor. Tips are provided on studies, personal counselling and guidance regarding career choices to get success in the university examinations. The mentees are supported in the form of precise content on courses, fees, reviews, college admission process, scholarships, etc.

4.The Practice

- Mentees are assigned to the mentors right from the first year of the program.
- A mentor has not more than 20 mentees at a time.
- The mentees preferably are attached to the same mentor for the entire duration of the program.
- The mentor meets the mentees regularly and records the outcome of the meeting and these are periodically updated.
- The mentor identifies the students performing exceptionally well in curricular or co-curricular activities and reports to the head of the institution/department for providing further motivation to such advanced/gifted learners.
- The mentor also identifies the students whose performance/attendance is below par. The mentor interacts with the student and tries to find out the cause of the problem or indifferent behavior. If required, the mentor involves the parents and head of the department for reforming the student:

1.Attendance: The mentor observes and monitors the attendance of the mentee, advises and takes necessary follow-up action concerning students who do not meet the attendance norms of the university.

2. Academic Matters: The mentor also keeps a track of the academic performance of mentees including continuous assessment, term and examination, and help the mentee through counselling or by arranging remedial teaching, if necessary.
3. Behavioural and discipline matters.
4. Health and physical well-being.
5. Achievements, talents, and co-curricular activities.
6. Stress-related issues.

Mentor updates the Office of the 'Dean Student Welfare' to respond to mentor needs by sharing additional campus resources, consultation, and ideas for supporting behavior change.

The updates also help to educate other mentors on potential conversation topics and ways to address peer pressure, legal concerns, and transition issues. The most frequent referrals as summarized in the meeting updates include: Academic Advising, Financial Aid, Student Health Services, Student Legal Services, and faculty members or teaching assistants. Mentors assist their mentees in navigating a complex university system to connect the students in meaningful ways to appropriate resources. The referrals serve as an early intervention network for students who typically experiencing a crisis.

It is a very effective system that is aimed to narrow down the gap between the mentee and the mentor and thereby the society in general. The students may come across difficulties during the degree programs and have to face academic and adjustment challenges. To cope with such problems and to enable them to excel in academics and profession as per their potential, a Mentor-Mentee program for the students of the institution has been developed.

5. Evidence of Success

The entire mentoring program spanned several integral concerns of the students. The mentors could certainly go beyond the suggested themes and customized the same as per the requirement of the mentees. Apart from this, mentors addressed students' problems, traced their progression during mid-semester exams, motivated them to participate in co-curricular and extra-curricular activities, and counseled them at all levels.

The mentorship program continued through WhatsApp groups in trying times of social isolation during the Covid-19 crisis. The mentors were just a call away and were ready to discuss not only academic but personal issues of the mentees too.

The scheme has become very successful in bridging the gap between the teacher and the student. It has become instrumental in blending the harmonious relationship between the learners and their family and the University at large. It has created an atmosphere of conviction and faith about the alma mater. Consequently, every year the enrolment ratio of students from all sections of society has been rapidly increasing.

6. Problems Encountered and Resources Required

- There is a significant need for a formal mentor program that includes specific guidelines for mentoring, established goals, awards for mentees and mentors, and formal training.
- Although mentors spend not more than 2-3 hours a month with their mentees, the relationship has a very positive effect on the members' overall experience.

- Additional training for the mentors on Motivational Interviewing techniques, campus resources, and ongoing discussions with mentors should enhance the support network for mentors and mentees.
- There is a need to establish goals for both mentor and mentee with recognition for achievements and to keep the program flexible, but structured and accessible to all members.
- An evaluation component to the mentor program may be added to encourage dialogue about what they did well and what needs improvement.
- Overall, positive feelings were expressed about mentoring. However, the structure is necessary to maximize retention and motivate new members to keep progressing.

7. Notes

The Mentoring program demonstrated the positive connections between students and knowledgeable, caring faculty and staff members. These connections developed as a result of dedicated mentors who feel strongly about student success. The mentors took the time to support the students through a check-in system that created accountability for personal behavior. The mentors were willing to build their professional skills by investing in practicing and using Motivational Interviewing.

The mentor relationship encourages members to continue progression with their personal goals and educational achievements. Furthermore, members report that mentoring improves motivation and retention.

It's not just the use of technology, which is the focus, but a clear analysis and understanding of the outcomes of the teaching-learning process which takes precedence here. The feedback mechanisms; qualified faculty; constant brainstorming among colleagues to improve the class quality; inputs from the Student Council and individual students; parents inputs; and alumni interaction too go a long way in ensuring that the best educational practices are available to students.

The faculty of Abhilashi University makes use of different teaching pedagogies viz. models, software, flipped classrooms, ICT platforms, e-resources and virtual methods as well. The focus is mainly on the learning aspects of the students. Also, it helps the students to realize their social responsibility towards society and assist them in implementing their classroom learning for finding a solution to societal problems, conscientize the community about their situations and help them to bring about attitudinal changes in them. It brings about attitudinal changes in the students and helps them to have concern for their fellow human beings. Making use of the resourcefulness of faculty and students to work for the holistic development of the village, Abhilashi University enables villagers to engage in suitable employment and increase their GDP and find out the issues of the villagers by researching the respective villages. Also, the extension programs make the students aware of their inner strength and help them to feel a sense of pride in what they could do to others.
