Report on "Ye Diwali, MY Bharat Wali"

Organized by: Abhilashi University in collaboration with Nehru Yuva Kendra, Mandi

Duration: 27th October 2024 to 30th October 2024

Objective:

The event "Ye Diwali, MY Bharat Wali" was organized with the aim of celebrating Diwali in a socially responsible way, focusing on community involvement, eco-friendly practices, and spreading awareness about a clean and green Diwali.

Day 1 (27th October 2024):

The event began with an opening ceremony that included motivational speeches by the Dean Student Welfare Dr. Devender Sharma. The focus of the day was on organizing workshops and seminars on the importance of eco-friendly Diwali celebrations, including the environmental impact of fireworks.

Day 2 (28th October 2024):

On the second day, students and volunteers actively participated in a cleanliness drive in nearby localities and temples. They promoted the use of traditional decorations like clay lamps, natural dyes, and flowers instead of plastic and other non-biodegradable materials.

Day 3 (29th October 2024):

A creative workshop was organized, where participants made traditional decorations, including clay diyas, Rangoli with natural colors, and handmade greeting cards. The aim was to encourage the youth to embrace traditional crafts and avoid plastic-based decorations.

Day 4 (30th October 2024):

The event concluded with a community gathering, where the participants distributed sweets and essential items to underprivileged families in the community. This gesture aimed to spread joy and celebrate Diwali with inclusivity and compassion.

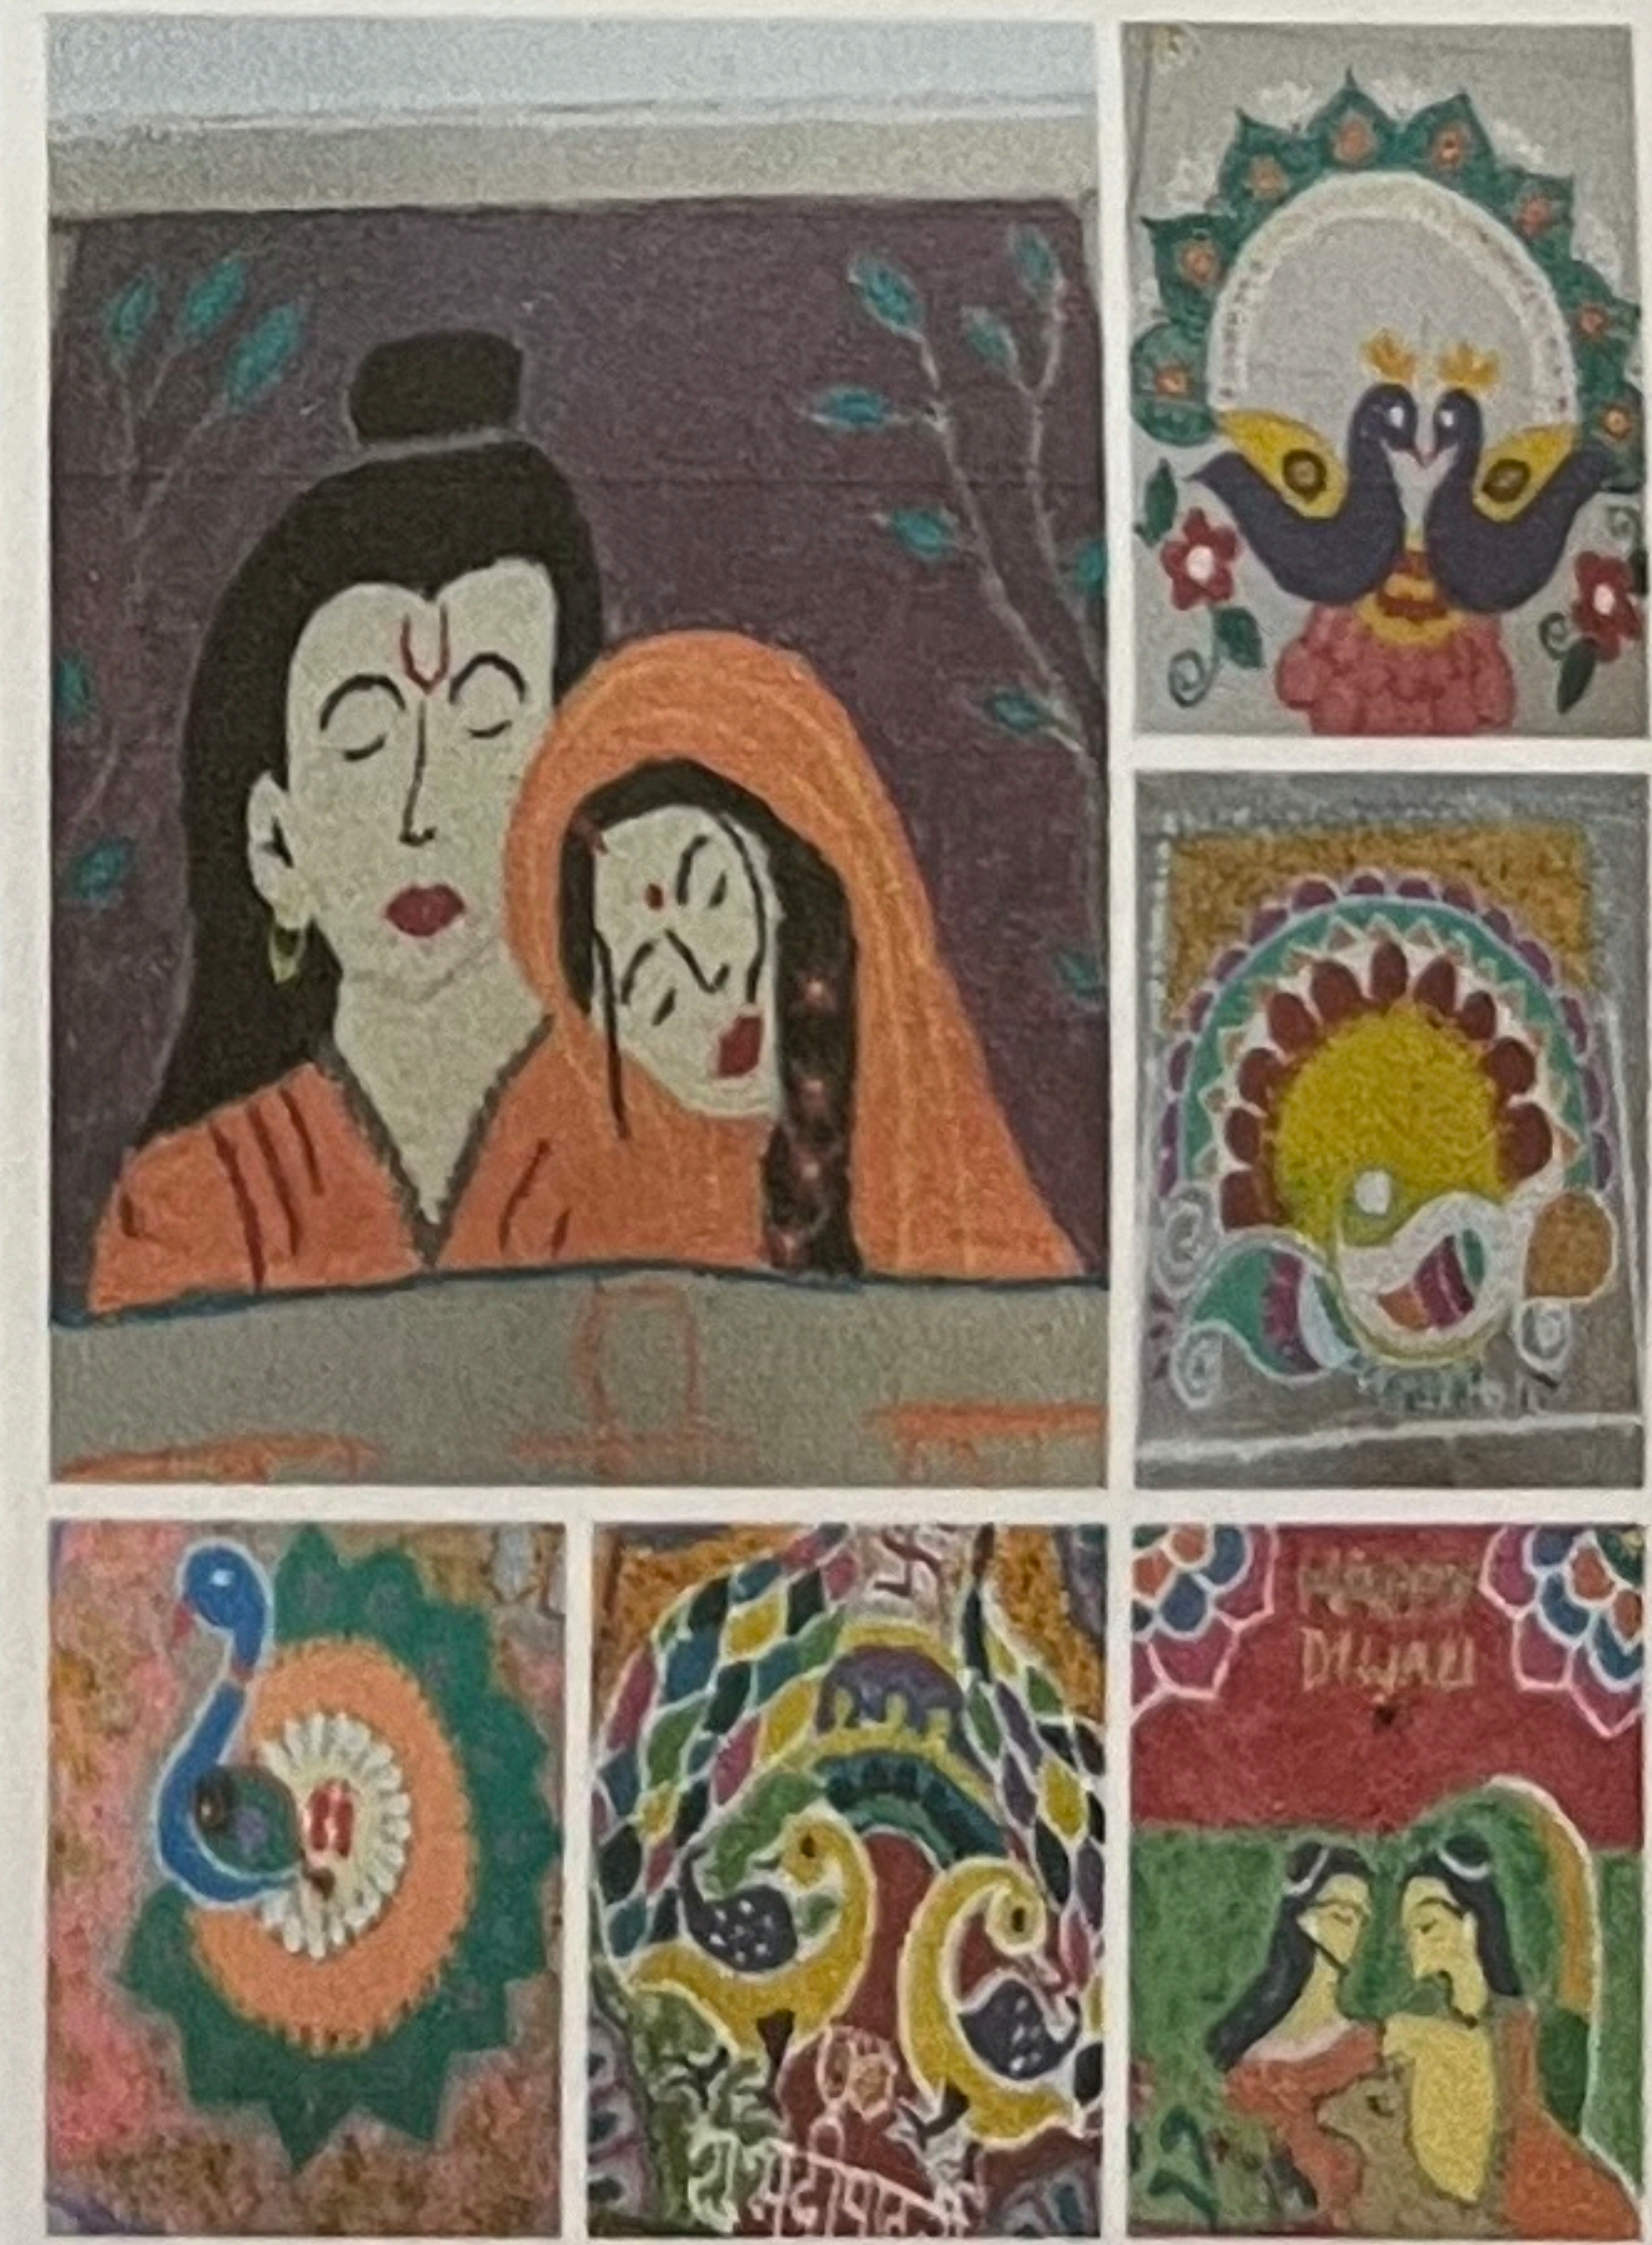

Outcomes:

- Enhanced awareness of eco-friendly Diwali practices among students and the community.
- Promotion of traditional Indian crafts and sustainable decor.

- Successful collaboration between Abhilashi University, Nehru Yuva Kendra, and the local community.

Conclusion:

The "Ye Diwali, MY Bharat Wali" event successfully instilled a sense of responsibility towards the environment and promoted a meaningful way to celebrate Diwali. The initiative strengthened community bonds and encouraged a sustainable approach to festivities, setting a positive example for future celebrations.
